

CURE JM FAMILY DAY

Washington, DC

Find Your People. Fuel Your Fight.

Come together with other DC Metro JM families for a day that's as inspiring as it is practical. From newly diagnosed families to long-term warriors, this event is built for you. You'll meet other families who just "get it." You'll hear from specialists, researchers, and advocates gaining new tools to help navigate daily life with JM. And most importantly, you'll breathe again alongside other families holding space for strength to take root and grow.
